Imaging Solutions and Services Inc presents at Info Tech 2001

Chattanooga, TN, October 9, 2001 – Imaging Solutions and Services Inc (ISSI), a leading document imaging systems integrator and document conversion services company, presents in one of the region's largest technology conferences, Info Tech 2001, Chattanooga Convention Center. Presented by Brad Moritz, Chief Marketing Officer, ISSI, conference attendees will be able to participate in a multi-media presentation titled, Imaging and the Internet?. ISSI will also demonstrate the latest in document scanning and management technologies.

Imaging and the Internet? will be presented from 11:30am – 12:15pm on Thursday, October 11th in the Seminar Theater #1. The presentation will de-mystify document imaging and the role the Internet can play to make imaging solutions vital and cost-effective in today's global competitive marketplace. An open-forum discussion and Kodak Digital Camera raffle will conclude the presentation.

In its conference booth, ISSI will demonstrate Kofile KoVIS document management software, the Kodak Digital Science 3500 Scanner with Kodak Mid-Volume Capture Software, the Kodak Intelligent Microfilm Scanner, and the Fujitsu 4097D Scanner with Kofax Ascent Capture Software. Representatives from Kodak and Fujitsu will be on hand to address questions from the attendees.
